Tongues Out! Photo Contest Winner

“Bonnie and I thank everyone for the recognition! I was sitting on the couch trying to talk to my sister who was across from me. My dog, Bonnie, doesn't bark but does this low growl/howl that is drawn out for about a minute. Everytime she did... her howl, I would turn to her and howl back which was catching her completely off guard stopping her mid-howl. The third time I did this she stopped ME!!! halfway through my howl by taking a big lick across my face. =D She is a very loving dog who has a tendency to bath people in slobbery kisses upon meeting them as a way of showing her love.

Thank you again! =D”
